It is time for the GDVI Elections

Part of your recovery is completing a 12th step; a commitment to do service. Participating in the Greater Delaware Valley Intergroup is a great way to do service. Whether you decide to be a meeting representative that attends the monthly GDVI meetings, a meeting treasurer that collects the 7th tradition, a GDVI committee volunteer or chairperson, or a member of the Board, your service commitment is welcome. Service commitments start in January, last one year, and have a minimum sobriety requirement of six months, except the positions of GDVI Chair and treasurer which is a sobriety commitment of two years. All positions are open. The positions that are available are: GDVI Chairperson, Co-Chairperson, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, Literature Chair, Headline News Editor, Web Site Coordinator, Meeting List Coordinator, Social Committee Chair, Information Line Coordinator, Inspiration Line Coordinator, Retreat Coordinators. Go to www.slaadvi.org to review the job descriptions or contact info@slaadvi.org to inquire more about the positions you want.

Service Keeps You Sober!

CHANGES TO THE GDVI MEETING LIST

There are changes planned for the Meeting List. A new central meeting information contact number has been implemented, 609-621-SLAA (7522). Look for it on your November meeting list. To disseminate accurate meeting information we need updated information on contact names and numbers for the meetings, including the host building names and address, the correct room and directions to the meeting room. GDVI is consider eliminating the "C" or closed designation, and several other format descriptions, so classifications of the meeting format will also be updated. Send meeting info to: Melissa K (dviretreatcoordinator@slaadvi.org) or Steve D (dvicorrespondingsecretary@gmail.com)
